No outstanding investigations to report.

No critical incidents to report.

There were no comments from the public.

Comments from the board, City Councilman Phillip Jankowski asked that someone approach the Humane Society to see if someone from their organization was going to fill the seat vacancy on the board. If not, perhaps someone from the public can fill that position.

I (A/C Williams) offered to speak with the Humane Society to get their answer.

There was no unfinished business:

The next Board meeting will be announced via e-mail

The Animal Advisory Board formally adjourned

Royce Williams

Assistant Chief of Police
