

MAC MEMBER SELF EVALUATION
MAY 2013

It is important for every Board and every committee to have its members evaluate their service and volunteer efforts. MAC has relied on its members to produce a number of projects. Each member of MAC should evaluate what resources they have brought to the committee to assess their own commitment to a successful process. Please complete this and keep for your records. We will discuss at the next MAC meeting.

MAC COMMITTEE
PROJECT SUB-COMMITTEE SELECTION

MAC has relied on its members to produce a number of projects since the committee's inception. Moving ahead each member of MAC should determine their strengths and talents in order to commit to provide assistance in the upcoming months on current and future projects. Please complete this and turn in your choices for how you will serve the committee in the months ahead. This information will help ease the burden of responsibilities by sharing the load.
