Passing of the minutes from the June meeting was deferred to the August meeting

Financial Report: Ms. Jacobi reported that everything has been paid regarding Sculptfusion. Our account is at $17,045.39. A bill from Visual Impression was deferred to August meeting. Passing of the Financial Report was deferred to the August meeting:

Old Business

Ms. Orlich thanked Zach Baker and the Park Dept. staff for their hard work in putting in the sculptures for Sculptfusion. She reported that the MAC website is updated. She also reported that the parks did not sustain much damage during the recent heavy rains.

Ms. Saxton reported about speaking to artist Richard Hunt about doing a sculpture for Westcott Park that would be permanent. He asked for more information to be sent to him about the park.

New Business

Ms. Cooper made an offer to photograph sculptures w/ people to show interactiveness.

Ms. Jabobi reported the sculptures have been really getting people out and great comments have been made.

Ms. Saxton commented the great work Tim Haas did in figuring the placement of the sculptures for Sculptfusion.

Mr. Edwards invited MAC members to the Patch Picnic on August 10 from 9am to 9pm. There will be blues music and lots of fun. He would members to represent themselves and the art at the picnic.

Meeting adjourned at 3:35pm
