Bills were presented for payment. Upon a motion by Virginia Nichols. Second by Louis Hapke. Approval was given for payment. Motion carried.

Superintendent Report

1. Greenwood Cemetery was trimmed entirely twice before Memorial Day, the first time it has ever been trimmed twice before the holiday. The Veterans of All War Circle was edged around each memorial and the sidewalk. All flowers were planted at both cemeteries. World War II Memorial Circle Monument was power washed along with the benches and sidewalk around globe. Swan Lake was trimmed and cut repeatedly before Memorial Day. The six dead trees were removed and cleaned up. Stumps will be removed later this summer or fall time permitting.
2. I would like to commend all the Cemetery employees for the extra effort and for a job well done for this past Memorial Day.
3. Superintendent Tomsheck will meet Tuesday, June 15th with Duane Seifert from Current Electric about security lighting and possible new lights in garage at Swan Lake.
