Michigan City police hold gun buyback

Michigan City, IN

Posted: 11:34 PM May 24, 2008

The Michigan City Police Department is giving out gifts for guns.

The campaign called "Get more buck for your bang" is designed to reduce the number of people hurt both accidentally and intentionally by guns.

Police also want to help people who do not know what to do with the guns they have at home.

In exchange for their guns, people can get DVD players, Wal-Mart gift cards or gas cards.

The guns will be kept in a secure display in the Michigan City police department's front lobby.

"They will stay encased in this display forever and today," said Sgt. Chris Yagelski with the Michigan City police. "So that people can feel safe bringing their gun here and know that it will never hit the streets again or never be sold or never be traded."
