

WHEREAS: the Holocaust was the state-sponsored, systematic persecution and annihilation of European Jewry by Nazi Germany and its collaborators between 1933 and 1945. Jews were the primary victims – six million were murdered; Gypsies, the handicapped, and Poles were also targeted for destruction or decimation for racial, ethnic, or national reasons. Millions more, including homosexuals, Jehovah's Witnesses, Soviet prisoners of war and political dissidents, also suffered grievous oppression and death under Nazi tyranny; and

WHEREAS: the history of the Holocaust offers an opportunity to reflect on the moral responsibilities of individuals, societies, and governments; and

WHEREAS: we the people of the City of Michigan City should always remember the terrible events of the Holocaust and remain vigilant against hatred, persecution, and tyranny; and

WHEREAS: we the people of the City of Michigan City should actively rededicate ourselves to the principles of individual freedom in a just society; and

WHEREAS: the Days of Remembrance have been set aside for the people of the City of Michigan City to remember the victims of the Holocaust as well as to reflect on the need for respect of all peoples; and

WHEREAS: The U.S. Congress established the Days of Remembrance as our nation's annual commemoration of the victims of the Holocaust and created the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum as a permanent living memorial to those victims. The United States Holocaust Memorial Council designates this year's Days of Remembrance of the Victims of the Holocaust to be Sunday, April 23 through Sunday, April 30, 2006 including the international Day of Remembrance known as Yom Hashoah, April 25.

NOW THEREFORE, I CHARLES OBERLIE, MAYOR of Michigan City, Indiana do hereby proclaim the week of Sunday, April 23 through Sunday, April 30, 2006 as:

Days of Remembrance

in memory of the victims of the Holocaust, and in honor of the survivors, as well as the rescuers and liberators, and further proclaim that we, as citizens of the City of Michigan City, should strive to overcome intolerance and indifference through learning and remembrance.

Dated this 21st day of April, 2006

Charles E. Oberlie, Mayor
City of Michigan City

ATTEST:

Thomas F. Fedder, City Clerk
