Do you enjoy learning new things and then sharing what you know with others? Does the idea of an outdoor classroom intrigue you? If so, the Washington Park Zoo invites you to become a zoo docent. A docent means a "knowledgeable guide". If you would like to learn about the Zoo and share your knowledge with visitors a few hours per week, join us for docent training from 9-11:30 on Saturday, May 14th and May 21st in the new entrance conference room. Contact the zoo office at 219-873-1510 (ask for Sheila) to complete a volunteer application register for the training.

For more information on the Washington Park Zoo, located near the shore of Lake Michigan in Michigan City, Indiana, visit www.washingtonparkzoo.com.
