

City of Michigan City

Indiana

Proclamation

WHEREAS In 1872 J Sterling Morton proposed to the Nebraska Board of Agriculture that a special day be set aside for the planting of trees; and

WHEREAS this holiday, called Arbor Day, was first observed with the planting of more than a million trees in Nebraska; and

WHEREAS Arbor Day is now observed throughout the nation and the world; and

WHEREAS trees can reduce the erosion of our precious topsoil by wind and water, cut heating and cooling costs, moderate the temperature, clean the air, produce oxygen and provide habitat for wildlife; and

WHEREAS trees are a renewable resource giving us paper, wood for our homes, fuel for our fires and countless other wood products; and

WHEREAS trees in our city increase property values, enhance the economic vitality of business areas, and beautify our community; and

WHEREAS trees, wherever they are planted, are a source of joy and spiritual renewal

NOW THEREFORE, I SHEILA BRILLSON, Mayor of the City of Michigan City, Indiana do hereby proclaim April 25, 2003 as

ARBOR DAY

In the City of Michigan City in the State of Indiana, and urge all citizens to celebrate Arbor Day and to support efforts to protect our trees and woodlands, and further, I urge all citizens to plant trees to gladden the heart and promote the well-being of this and future generations.

DATED THIS 23rd day of April, 2003

Sheila Brillson, Mayor
City of Michigan City

ATTEST:

Thomas F. Fedder, City Clerk
