Michigan City Day at the Zoo

Michigan City, IN (July 18, 2005) – Michigan City residents of all ages are invited to visit the beautiful Washington Park Zoo from 3pm – 7pm on Thursday, July 21st – FREE.

“The City of Michigan City and the Washington Park Zoo wish to say ‘thank you’ to the citizens of the community which support the zoo,” said Mayor Chuck Oberlie. “One small way we can show our appreciation is to invite residents to visit the zoo and not charge them an admission fee. We will have one Michigan City Day at the Zoo each month through September.”

The dates and times for future Michigan City Day at the Zoo this season are:

- Thursday, August 25 3-7 pm with gates closing at 6pm
- Wednesday, Sept. 22 Noon – 4pm with gates closing at 3pm

Michigan City residents must provide valid driver's license or other photo ID such as a student identification card that shows a current Michigan City address. Elementary school students who may not have school ID cards must be accompanied by an adult with valid Michigan City identification. Regular parking fees apply; free parking stickers are available to Michigan City residents from the Park Office. (Call 873-1506 for details.)

Visit www.washingtonparkzoo.com for information on events scheduled at the Zoo, regular admission fees, zoo's open hours, volunteering opportunities, memberships, parties at the zoo, and more!
