Proclamation

- WHEREAS: The Sinai Forum has enlightened audiences to a diversity of viewpoints since 1953 and has led the challenge of encouraging the exchange of ideas in our community; and,
- WHEREAS: The Sinai Forum speaker's list comprises a roster of world leaders, national icons, cosmic explorers and outstanding individuals of the last half century,
- WHEREAS: The annual infusion into our local community of the global perspectives and leading-edge insights into wide-ranging subjects provided by the Sinai Forum speakers over 50 years have left a memorable and positive impact on Michigan City residents, and
- WHEREAS: The appearance of these illustrious guests before appreciative audiences in Michigan City is the direct result of the undying dedication, determination, unselfishness and passion for quality public discourse manifested by the local nonprofit community group of volunteers known collectively as The Sinai Sunday Evening Forum.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Charles Oberlie, Mayor of Michigan City, do hereby proclaim Saturday, September 13, 2003, as
