Tony The Tiger & Leo The Lion Day At Washington Park Zoo

Michigan City, IN (June 10, 2005) – Calling all young tigers and lions!

Children who come to the Washington Park Zoo, on the southern shores of Lake Michigan, on Tuesday, June 14th wearing any lion or tiger costume will get $1 off their entry fee to the zoo!

To qualify for this special event, children ages 3-11 must wear a complete costume at entry; mask only does not qualify. (If temperature is high on June 14th, parents should use discretion about removing costume components once inside the zoo.) Photos of costumed children may be taken for use on the Michigan City website, www.emichigancity.com.

Costumed children ages 3-11 will pay only $1.50 for zoo entry; without costumes, children 3-11 will pay regular zoo entry fee of $2.50. Children under 3 enter zoo free at any time.

The Zoo is open on June 14th from 10:30 a.m. until 6 p.m. with gates closing at 5 p.m.

*Admission fees: under 2 years – Free; Age 3-11 years - $2.50;
Ages 12-61 - $4.50; and Ages 62 and over - $3.00.*
