Zoo Camp 2004

Michigan City, IN (May 24, 2004) –Washington Park Zoo Director Lane Theriac invites children to a very special summer day camp at Washington Park Zoo.

“Zoo Camp is for children who love animals and nature,” said Director Theriac. “This is 7th year we’ve offered Zoo Camp to the community, and the response has been overwhelmingly positive.”

Director Theriac said, “Zoo Camp for children ages 6 to 8 is limited to 15 children per session, and for ages 9 to 11 is limited to ten children per session. The Camps fill up quickly, so register soon.”

“This year’s theme is Creatures of the Night,” said Theriac. “We’ll be learning about bats and owls and all manner of creatures which call the night their own. The children will participate in crafts as well as educational activities, and we’ll all spend some time in the zoo.”

The 2004 Zoo Camp will be held from 9am – Noon each session; the schedule and costs are:

- June 15-18 for 6 to 8 year olds ($50 for non-members; $40 for members)
- June 29-July 2 for 9 to 11 year olds ($60 for non-members; $50 for members)
- July 6-9 for 6 to 8 year olds ($50 for non-members; $40 for members)
- July 20-23 for 6 to 8 year olds ($50 for non-members; $40 for members)
- July 27-30 for 9 to 11 year olds ($60 for non-members; $50 for members)

Registration and payment in full are due two weeks prior to the beginning of the session. Contact the Washington Park Zoo at 219/873-1510 for more information on Zoo Camp 2004.
