SEPTEMBER 11TH CEREMONY & UNVEILING OF THE POLICE AND FIREFIGHTER MEMORIAL STATUE

Michigan City, IN -- Mayor Chuck Oberlie announced today that the City of Michigan City will host a special public ceremony on Monday, September 11, 2006, at 12:00 p.m. in Millennium Plaza at Washington Park. The public is invited and encouraged to attend.

Mayor Oberlie said, "On Monday, September 11th, Michigan City will conduct a special dual ceremony to honor the memory of those who lost their lives on September 11th, 2001, and to unveil and dedicate Michigan City's new Police and Firefighter Memorial Statues in honor of our local police officers and firefighters who have died while in the line of duty throughout our city's long history. As part of the ceremony, Judge Kathleen Lang will perform a solemn salute on the bagpipes for our fallen comrades."
