

EVERYONE MUST TAKE TIME
TO SIT AND WATCH THE LEAVES
TURN. ~ELIZABETH LAWRENCE

Visit Michigan City, Indiana on the southern shores of Lake Michigan and experience autumn in a new way!

You can watch the leaves turn to gold...visit fields full of orange pumpkins of all shapes and sizes...pick juicy apples fresh from the trees...visit the Farmer's Market and discover fresh-baked breads, fresh meats, flowers and vegetables as well as honey, and so much more.

Experience the awesome power of Lake Michigan as waves crash against the seawall of the only functioning lighthouse in Indiana.

Travel country roads lined with birch, pine, maple, oak, cottonwood, locust, sumac, hickory, walnut and dozens of other species of trees...all of which are dressed in bright shades of red, orange, gold, and brown.

Walk through protected forests and visit settler's homes from an age long past.

Visit a delightful zoo within sight of Lake Michigan's shoreline.

Big sky full of bright stars, sunsets over Lake Michigan, beach walks on crisp fall days...this is Autumn in Michigan City. Won't you join us for memorable moments?
