Superintendent Report

1. Superintendent Tomsheck would like to note the passing of Virginia Nichols on June 21, 2019. Virginia Nichols was a Cemetery Board Member since April of 1997 a little over twenty (20) years. Virginia was appointed by then Mayor Sheila Brillson. She served on the Board during the building of the new mausoleum at Swan Lake Serenity Mausoleum, also the opening of an upright monument section at Swan Lake the Serenity Garden section. She was also instrumental in the expansion of a Veterans area at Swan Lake Memorial Gardens. Her cremains will be laid to rest next to her husband at Greenwood Cemetery at a later date.
2. The repair on the entrance wall has been started. The contractor reported two to three weeks from Monday July 5th to complete. The insurance claim has been sent and first check will pay remainder when complete less the deductible.
3. The new hire grass cutter has quit no call no show for three days. Superintendent will start interviewing seasonal applicants again to work until the end of October.
4. The railing work at Swan Lake will be started in about 3 to 4 weeks. We are on the list for repairs to begin soon.

Meeting adjourned at 4:05 P.M.

Next meeting will be held at GREENWOOD CEMETERY OFFICE COMPLEX at 3:30 P.M. on August 8, 2019.
